

NEW DISTRICT. NEW VISION. EXPERIENCED VOICE.

MIHAELA  PLESA

FOR TEXAS STATE REPRESENTATIVE HD70

As a lifetime resident of North Texas, Mihaela Plesa was raised in Carrollton and feels blessed to continue to call North Dallas home. Born and bred in Texas, Mihaela is the only child of immigrant parents who fled Eastern Europe, seeking a better life in the United States - the land of Mihaela is the proud product of Texas public schools. She attended the University of North Texas where she graduated with her Bachelors in Political Science. Her passion for government affairs and global relations brought her to study abroad in Spain where she lived for a semester and focused on becoming fluent in Spanish. She graduated from the University of North Texas in 2006. In 2012, Mihaela graduated Cum Laude from Southern Methodist University as one of the first graduates from the Annette Caldwell Simmons School of Education and Human Development with a master's in Liberal Arts focusing on Global Studies.

After college, Mihaela spent some time working with entrepreneurs and small businesses throughout Texas, managing their companies brands and building their public relations. Throughout her career in PR, she continued to stay true to her passion for civics and worked with a wide range of organizations stretching from the Young National Organization of Women (Young NOW) to the National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Law (NORML).

In 2017, after years of marching, protesting, and advocating with little felt results, she left her job at a small business to get her hands dirty down in Austin at the Texas Legislature. Throughout three legislative sessions and four special sessions, Mihaela developed institutional knowledge of the Texas Legislature leading to multiple legislative wins. One of the most notable and recent successes was the drafting and passage of Proposition 8 which was on the November 2, 2021, ballot.:

In 2020, Mihaela became engaged to her long-time boyfriend and tech CEO Todd Hollenshead of Garland, Texas. They have lived in Collin County for the last ten years with their two dogs Napoleon and Oliver. They enjoy gardening, running, and love snow sports.

PLESAFORTXAS.COM

INFO@PLESAFORTXAS.COM